Junior Police Academy

Do you want to learn more about the Police Department and what Officers do everyday?

If you are a 2008 PAL member, you can apply for our Summer Junior Police Academy!

Two sessions will occur this year! Session One is for 5th and 6th graders and will be held July 14-July 18 from 9:00am – 3:00pm. Session Two is for 7th and 8th graders and will be held July 28–August 1! If you are accepted into either class, you'll take part in the following:

- Crime Scene Investigation
- Narcotics and Vice
- Motor Vehicle Accident Investigation

- SWAT
- Traffic Radar and Laser Demo
- Forensic Evidence and Fingerprinting
- K9 Demo

An application is attached and should be completed as soon as possible and mailed to the address above or faxed to 731-9362. You can also apply on-line at www.euclidpd.org.

PAL Fishing

The Euclid PAL Officers are in the process of taking all fourth grade students in Euclid on daily fishing trips! We've visited the Division of Wildlife location in Akron! It's a great first-time experience for most students!

We will be planning fishing trips open to all 2008 PAL members 5th grade and older. The dates will be: 6/28, 7/12, 7/26 and 8/9. This year, all trips will be on the Linda Mae! Registration can be made over the phone no sooner than two weeks prior to each trip. Join us!
