February 2010

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Hi Everyone,

Well, this is about the time of year when the lack of vitamin D has finally left me with the winter blues and I start praying for spring to hurry on it's way.

February 2nd was Groundhog's Day and although Punxsutawney Phil did see his shadow, Ohio's version of the prognosticating hibernator, Buckeye Chuck, did NOT see his shadow which means we may be in for some luck,...an early spring!

In the meantime, we'll be busy getting ready for the annual Pistol Match. I am always so excited to see so many of our members participate. It's our biggest event of the year.

And this year, as many of you know, we hope to add another major event in the Fall. More information will be available about this at our February meeting. I hope everyone can make it!

J. Greiner

SPEAKERS

Our speaker for the February meeting is Jacqueline King.

Her title is Partnership Assistant for the U.C. Department of Commerce, U.S. Census Bureau, and she will be giving us instructions on how to handle the upcoming census, including how to fill out census forms properly.
