Lieutenant Tracy Harpster has served the Moraine Police Department in Ohio since 1984. He has worked as street officer, undercover narcotics officer, Sergeant, Detective Sergeant and Operations Lieutenant. In 2006, Lt. Harpster achieved a Graduate degree from the University of Cincinnati where his Master's Thiesis examined the indicators of innocence and guilt of 9-1-1 homicide callers reporting the offense. The study defined and analyzed the indicators in order to assist homicide detectives gain insight into the offense, suggest offender probability, and explore pertinent issues during the interview and interrogation phases of the investigation. Lt. Harpster has shared his research at homicide conferences across the country.

The Euclid Citizens Police Academy is proud to announce and host this ultimate training experience to the Cleveland area.

This training is specifically designed to educate all criminal justice personnel—from Telecommunicators, Law Enforcement Officers, Detectives, Medical Examiners along with Prosecutor's.
