Police were dispatched to 729 East 236 Street reference a group of males fighting. When police arrived they observed multiple people walking away from the address and multiple people standing in the homes front tree lawn. Two males who were standing in the tree lawn threatened to physically harm police, so police made contact with them to identify them. One of the males who threatened the officers aggressed an officer, made additional threats, was told to move back, and refused. The officer felt threatened by the males actions and they were pushed back to create the requested distance. The male aggressed the officer again and pushed the officer. Due to officers being outnumbered the assaulted officer decided not to engage the male and waited for back up. After back up arrived police took the male into custody. The male was found to have active warrants for his arrest. The warrants were for discharging firearms inside city limits, resisting arrest, assault on a health care worker, misconduct at an emergency, disorderly conduct, and persistent disorderly conduct.

Community Response Officers responded to Baby D's Chicken Shack, 18500 Lakeshore Blvd. for a male creating a disturbance. The complainant described the males behavior at erratic and aggressive towards employees and customers. The male was described as a 25 year old black male, wearing work boots, shorts and no shirt. Officers located the male and believed him to be both a psychiatric situation and under the influence of narcotics.
Officers attempted to speak with the male for approximately 13 minutes to get the male treatment. An ambulance was dispatched to assist the male, however he refused medical treatment. The male fled from officers multiple times and then attempted to assault another Euclid Officer. Officers deployed tasers which were not effective against the subject. The male bite a Euclid Officer in the back of the head and punched him in the face. The male was subdued and transported to the Euclid Hospital. Warrants will be completed for assault on a police officer.

5425F	VEHICLE PURSUIT - NO ARREST
A police officer was driving in a marked police cruiser and saw a black in color Nissan Altima that was taken at gunpoint. The officer activated his cruiser's lights and siren to pull the Nissan over, however the Nissan accelerated to evade police. The officer chased after the Nissan through Euclid, through Cleveland, and onto Interstate 90 west. While the Nissan fled on Interstate 90 west it rear ended a Buick, causing the Buick to spin out. The Buick and the officers cruiser collided, causing disabling damage to the cruiser. The Nissan continued west bound and was unable to be found. Assisting officers responded to the accident scene, which was handled by Bratenhal Police Department. The driver of the Buick was not injured and declined being transported to the hospital.
