4811	OBSTRUCTING OFFICIAL BUSINESS
Public Indecency/ Obstructing Official Business: While Euclid police officers were responding to a call for service located in an apartment complex, they observed a male suspect in the outdoor courtyard area of the same apartment complex urinating. Upon Euclid police officers contacting the male suspect in regards to his urinating in open view of others, the male suspect became defiant and continued to urinate. The male suspect then refused to provide personal identifying information to Euclid police officers after being told to do so. After failing to provide any personal identifying information, the male suspect started to walk away from Euclid police officers, at which time he was detained in handcuffs. A warrant request was completed as a result of this incident.
