Willoughby Police Cadets #6020

Willoughby Police Officer Ross Shirey 10:30– 11:00 am Room 110

The mission of the Willoughby Police Cadets program is to cultivate exceptional, well-prepared cadets for a career in law enforcement. The Willoughby program, open to all youth in Northeast Ohio, provides comprehensive training comparable to the core curriculum of the Ohio Police Academies. Cadets range from ages 14-20, attend 3 meetings per month, and may be eligible for assistance with police academy tuition from a non-profit organization.

Senior Crime Prevention

Mentor Police Department Officer Dan Radigan & Tracey Woodward 10:30 – 11:00 am Room 111

Senior citizens are often perceived as financially stable and may be less familiar with emerging technologies, making them potential targets for criminal activity. However, there are a variety of strategies and tools available to empower seniors and their families, enabling them to safeguard themselves and maintain control over their assets. By adopting crime prevention measures, they can enhance their security and reduce the risk of becoming victims of crime.

Internet Theft & Fraud

Willoughby Hills Police Officer Sal Continenza 11:15 – 11:45 pm Room 110

In today’s digital age, the threat of internet and smart phone thefts and frauds is ever present. Learn about current frauds, how these operate, and the latest trends in prevention like recognizing secure websites and enabling two-factor authentication. Learn what tools can help you secure your personal information and protect your financial safety in this digital age. Handouts will be provided.

Stay Aware, Alert, & Alive

ODOT Transportation Safety Planner Izzy Ciptak

11:15 – 11:45 am Room 111

Safety planners keep Ohioans safe on the highways and Izzy Ciptak will explain his job, his personal experiences working in Northeast Ohio ODOT D12. A review of statistic, safety tips, and seat belts will be covered along with viewing a slide show of crashes in ODOT D12.

From Report to Resolution: The Steps to Felony Prosecution

Cuyahoga County Prosecutor Glen Ramdhan

12:00 – 12:30 pm Room 110

Learn the process of a felony prosecution from the initial police report, appearance in court, bind over, grand jury, pre-trials, pleas, and trials. Glen Ramdhan will explain expectations at each stage, what to consider for a plea deal, and victims' rights.

SCAMO

Cuyahoga County Scam Squad Drew Thomas

12:00 – 12:45 pm Room 111

SCAMO is a fun, Bingo-style game that helps players learn about scams and frauds, how to identify them and avoid becoming a victim. Children too young to read will need an adult's help to play.

Reducing Violent Crime at Liquor Permit Premises

Ohio Investigative Unit Robert Boldin

1:15 – 1:45 pm Room 110

The Ohio Investigative Unit (OIU) has authority to conduct administrative and criminal investigations at any of Ohio's more than 27,000 liquor permit premises. Learn what OIU is doing to combat violent crime, illegal weapons and drug trafficking offenses on these premises, proactive steps that liquor permit holders can take to reduce crime in and around their businesses and how OIU is partnering with local law enforcement to keep bars, liquor stores and carry-outs safe for their employees and patrons.

Community Response Unit

Euclid Police Officers Brandon Moore & Stephen Grover

1:30 – 2:00 pm Room 111

CRU focuses a team of officers to address specific problems in targeted hotspots for issues primarily related to illegal firearms and narcotics possession. CRU saturates areas in the community that are known for high levels of criminal activity. Duties include uniformed and plain clothes details that assist narcotics and the detective bureaus to develop felony cases, and address other quality of life issues.
