The police responded to a report of a disabled motor vehicle on I.R. 90 Eastbound near S.R. 2 Westbound interchange bridge. The police made contact with the male driver who was identified as the registered owner. A female juvenile was occupying the backseat. The driver told the police his friend was en route with gas. The police requested 3S towing to respond and advised the driver his vehicle would be towed if the other party did not arrive before 3S. 3S Towing arrived, and the driver was advised his vehicle was being towed by the police. The police asked the driver if there were any firearms in the vehicle, and the driver pointed at a handgun between the driver seat and center console. The police commanded the driver to exit the vehicle several times, and the driver failed to comply. After additional verbal commands, the driver exited and threatened to fight the police. The suspect was arrested and transported to the police station. The police recovered a Glock 23 handgun loaded with one round in the chamber, a magazine, and a handgun holster. A second vehicle arrived, and the female driver was identified as the registered owner. The suspect told the police the juvenile could leave with the female. The juvenile was left in the female's care, and they left. The police issued the suspect criminal citations for Carrying concealed weapons, Obstructing official business, and Menacing. The male was issued traffic citation for Slow speed. The suspect was released from police custody at the police station parking lot.
