 1398 AGGRAV MENACING
 Police responded to a call for a 911 hangup, where a female was heard screaming to send the police at Popeye's restaurant on Euclid Ave. Upon arrival, the victims advised that the suspects fled the scene in an unknown silver SUV. While speaking with the police, one of the victims advised that after a non-violent incident with a female and her children, a male approached one of the employees outside and "punched" him in the face while holding his firearm in his waistband. The other victim advised that the male threatened to "pop" him while holding a firearm in his hand. There was another victim that was referenced, however, that employee left the scene before police arrived. Police will continue to investigate this incident until all relevant parties are identified. No suspect information was obtained as of yet. Paperwork was collected from the two victims on scene.
