I responded to the area of Gay St enroute to a dispatched erratic driver reported to be a motorcyce or moped causing noise in the 300 block of E 232 St when I observed a male operating an ATV on the roadway without lights. Suspecting this to be the suspect vehicle I initiated a traffic stop of the vehicle at about the 23100 block of Gay St. The operator complied with the stop and after discussion a written warning was prepared. As I prepared the written warning, the operator and the owner of the ATV who lived only a few houses from the location of the stop, pushed the vehicle onto their private drive and out of sight. When asked to provide some type of identification for the ATV to document on the warning the owner refused. The owner was detained and his information gathered for a criminal charge of Obstructing Official Business. The operator was issued traffic citations for driving under suspension ORC 4510.11 and Prohibited operation (ATV) 335.03 ECO.
